GETTING HERE IS THE EASY PART...

...it's leaving that may prove difficult.

The Heber Valley is located just 45 minutes from the Salt Lake International Airport and just 25 minutes from Provo and Orem. With its convenient location and spectacular array of recreational opportunities the Heber Valley is an ideal place to hold your next meeting or conference. Numerous lodging options dedicated to providing an incredible venue and unbeatable service await.

MIXING BUSINESS WITH PLEASURE IS THE NORM

Choosing a destination for your next meeting can be as important as the meeting itself. We recommend the following outdoor adventures for your next Heber Valley meeting:

- Deer Valley Resort
- Sundance Resort
- Soldier Hollow Golf Course and Nordic Center
- Heber Valley Railroad (historical railroad)
- Golf (90 holes all within 3 miles)
- Fly Fishing (Provo River)
- State Parks (Wasatch Mountain, Deer Creek, Jordanelle)
- Water Sports (kayaking, paddle boarding, boating, swimming, jet ski, kite boarding, sailing, aqua fun zone, tubing, rafting)
- Off-road Trails (60 miles of hiking, biking, OHV, snowmobile and horseback riding trails)
- Zipline (the longest line across water)
- Homestead Crater (warm geothermal spring for swimming, soaking or scuba diving)

Location is key.

With so much to accomplish in your short stay, why not spend less time traveling? Salt Lake City International Airport has 341 average daily flights to 98 nonstop destinations in North America. Now you can enjoy your stay even more.

Did you know? There are no stoplights between Heber Valley and the Salt Lake City International Airport?
